

YUTONG WANG(RITA)

Strategy Consulting &
Global Business Development Intern

+82 10-5663-8650   ritawang0486@snu.ac.kr   <https://yutongwang759-code.github.io/>

ABOUT ME

Trilingual (CN/EN/KR) International Commerce Master's candidate at Seoul National University with a background in Advertising and competitive debating. Experience across service-to-product strategy, market intelligence, media analytics, and executive stakeholder engagement at Bosch Engineering and IPG MediaBrands. Skilled in translating complex data into strategic recommendations and using AI tools to accelerate client-facing deliverables.

EDUCATION

|                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Seoul National University2026-2028 (Expected) | Master of International Studies (M.I.S.) in International CommerceRelevant Coursework: International Economic Relations, Global Trade & Policy, International Economy, Trade Law & Negotiation |
| Soochow University2022-2026                   | Bachelor of Arts in Advertising   GPA: 3.7 / 4.0Honors: Excellent Graduation Thesis Award                                                                                                      |

EXPERIENCE

|                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Bosch (China) Investment Ltd.2026.3-2026.6 | Business Compliance &amp; Strategy InternService-to-Product Strategy: Evaluated regulatory, legal, and market frameworks to drive Bosch Engineering (BEG)'s strategic pivot from custom technical consulting services to standardized product offerings.Executive Pitching &amp; Major Events: Authored high-impact pitch decks and marketing collateral for newly standardized solutions, driving enterprise client engagement for high-profile showcases including Auto China 2026 (Beijing Auto Show).                                                         |
|  IPG MediaBrands UM Worldwide2024.6-2024.9  | Strategy Planning InternMedia Performance Analytics &amp; Strategy: Tracked and evaluated core campaign metrics for flagship clients including New Balance and Burger King during high-volume Summer Sale campaigns; synthesized weekly and monthly performance reports to optimize future media strategies.Event Leadership &amp; Corporate ESG: Independently planned and executed the "Impact Day" corporate ESG initiative, managing stakeholder alignment, event logistics, and strategic communications to showcase corporate social responsibility impact. |

SKILLS

|                              |                         |                                                              |                                            |
|------------------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| • Market Intelligence        | • Strategic Pitching    | • Business Compliance                                        | • MS Office                                |
| • Public Speaking & Debating | • Basic Web Development | • Secondary Research(iResearch,etc) & Intelligence Synthesis | • Media Performance Analytics(CPM,ROI,etc) |

LANGUAGES

|                                        |                                             |                                       |
|----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Mandarin Chinese Native Speaker | English Executive-LevelIELTS 7.5 | Korean FluentTOPIK 6 (253) |
|----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|